

Dave Shull

President, Workforce Services & Solutions

Dave Shull is President of the exciting and newly formed Workforce Services and Solutions organization.

Dave will focus on driving more integration across our commercial services, software, and security portfolio in this customer-first organization.

Joining HP from Poly, where he held the role as President and CEO, Dave brings to HP over 25 years of senior leadership experience in business transformation, complex business partnerships, operations, and corporate development having built, led, and reinvigorated brands including TiVo, Weather Channel and Dish.

Dave serves as a board member and advisor to several technology start-ups, and also supports a group of charities focused on addressing ultra-poverty.

He holds a bachelor's degree in philosophy from Harvard University and an M.B.A. from Oxford University.

Dave is based in Denver, Colorado.
