

Executive Biography

Sumeer Chandra

Global Head and General Manager, PS Services

Sumeer Chandra is the Global Head and General Manager of HP's Personal Systems Services business. In his role, Sumeer is responsible for all aspects of the Services business; including business strategy, product development, technology platforms, category management, and service delivery capabilities. He oversees the development of long-term financial and operational plans and supports HP's market teams in executing to those plans.

Prior to this role, Sumeer was the Managing Director of HP India, where he oversaw HP's diversified operations in India's comprising sales, manufacturing, operations, and support.

Sumeer's past roles include serving as Global Head of Strategy and Business Management for HP Inc.'s Personal Systems Business, where he was responsible for developing and coordinating the execution of Personal Systems' business strategy. He was also the Global Head of Marketing and Strategy for the Graphics Solutions Business (GSB), where he ran Strategy and Planning for the Imaging and Printing Group (IPG) within HP.

Prior to joining HP in 2006, Sumeer was a Principal at The Boston Consulting Group (BCG), managing consulting assignments on strategy and operations for leading companies in India and the U.S. in a variety of industries, with primary focus on technology, consumer, and industrial goods. He also interned at Procter & Gamble, where he initiated business-development programs between P&G and its retailer customers.

Sumeer has a bachelor's degree in Mechanical Engineering from the Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) in Madras, and an MBA from the Indian Institute of Management (IIM) in Ahmedabad.